

Concord Specialty Risk Taps Matthew Edgette As Vice President, Tax Insurance Underwriting

December 11, 2019, NEW YORK, NY – Concord Specialty Risk (Concord) is pleased to announce that Matthew Edgette has joined the firm as Vice President, Tax Insurance Underwriting, where he will take on a leading role in Concord’s Tax Insurance practice. Mr. Edgette will be based in New York, NY.

For the last two years, Mr. Edgette has led tax insurance underwriting for Allied World Insurance Company. Prior to that position, he served as a manager, M&A Tax Services, at KPMG.

David S. De Berry, Esq., CEO of Concord Specialty Risk, notes that “Matthew has the requisite knowledge of tax law, underwriting savvy, people skills, and passion to lead Concord’s tax insurance practice during this opportunistic time to expand. We are excited to have the experience, skill set, relationships, and gravitas that Mr. Edgette brings with him.”

Commenting on joining the firm, Mr. Edgette said, “Concord is a well-known pioneer firm in the transactional risk space. I am excited to help grow the company’s Tax Insurance book and to be working with the best and the brightest at this time of growth in the Tax Insurance industry. I’m thrilled to be joining the outstanding team at Concord.”
